Paradise Valley Town Council Appoints Robert Nagle to Board of Adjustment

PHOENIX, AZ – OCTOBER 15, 2010 – The Paradise Valley Town Council has appointed attorney Robert Nagle to serve on the Town Board of Adjustment. The Board hears appeals concerning rulings of zoning laws and regulations of Paradise Valley. Nagle practices primarily in the areas of commercial real estate, corporate and bankruptcy law. With over 20 years of legal experience, and numerous accolades by clients and colleagues, Nagle has melded his ideals of excellent legal service with the high level of service and responsiveness respected by clients.

“Civil service is very important to all of us at Nagle Law Group and I am pleased by the opportunity to serve Paradise Valley in this role,” Nagle said. “My goal is to serve both the needs of the Town in general balanced against the requests of residents seeking relief from the Town's zoning ordinance when such relief is mandated by the larger societal need of government to serve its citizens.”

Prior to forming Nagle Law Group, P.C. in 1998, Nagle was a Senior Member in the real estate department at the law firm of O'Connor, Cavanagh, Anderson, Killingsworth & Beshears, P.A., where he represented local, regional, and national retailers in lease negotiations and local real estate developers with all manner of shopping center developments, financing and acquisition/disposition. Before moving to Phoenix, Nagle first practiced with Buchalter Nemer in Los Angeles and later as a real estate associate at the boutique real estate law firm of Diller and York. # # #
